NEW QUESTION: 1

The BEST way to ensure that information security policies are followed is to:

- A. perform periodic reviews for compliance.
- B. establish an anonymous hotline to report policy abuses.
- C. distribute printed copies to all employees.
- D. include escalating penalties for noncompliance.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation

The best way to ensure that information security policies are followed is to periodically review levels of compliance.

Distributing printed copies, advertising an abuse hotline or linking policies to an international standard will not motivate individuals as much as the consequences of being found in noncompliance.

Escalating penalties will first require a compliance review.
