NEW QUESTION: 2

What is the proper order for associating fields, forms, and files?

- A. Assign fields and files for forms.
- B. Assign fields to files and files to forms.
- C. Assign fields and forms to files.
- D. Assign fields to forms and forms to files.

Answer: D

Explanation:

User-defined files are used to build requisitions, requisition templates, and candidate files. A user-defined file is a page consisting of sections, each section contains blocks, a block contains forms and a form contains fields.

* Requisition files are created with the combination of multiple forms and predefined blocks grouped within sections.
